

March 2011: Danny Zelisko has recently left his position with Live Nation Southwest and launched his own company, Danny Zelisko Presents.

2

January 2009: Jason Rose of Rose & Allyn Public Relations had just moved into this 1,800-square-foot space in Scottsdale's Southbridge complex, with a layout he said "forces collaboration."

3

August 2006: Rani Li and husband Yong Shen of Sun Health Research Institute met in China when they were both in medical school, then moved to Arizona in 1997 when Shen was recruited by Sun Health Research Institute in Sun City.

4

August 2010: Mishell Vale Elliston suffered a paralyzing injury at age 5, but kept moving with her mother's help. She opened her Eightlim Yoga studio in 2007 and now enjoys helping others succeed.

5

July 2009: ASU biology professor Milton Sommerfeld's work in extracting oil from algae has spawned two companies.

6

September 2007: Lisa Zimmerman, president and chief operating officer of National Hair Centers in Phoenix, plays her bass guitar as an escape from the daily grind.

7

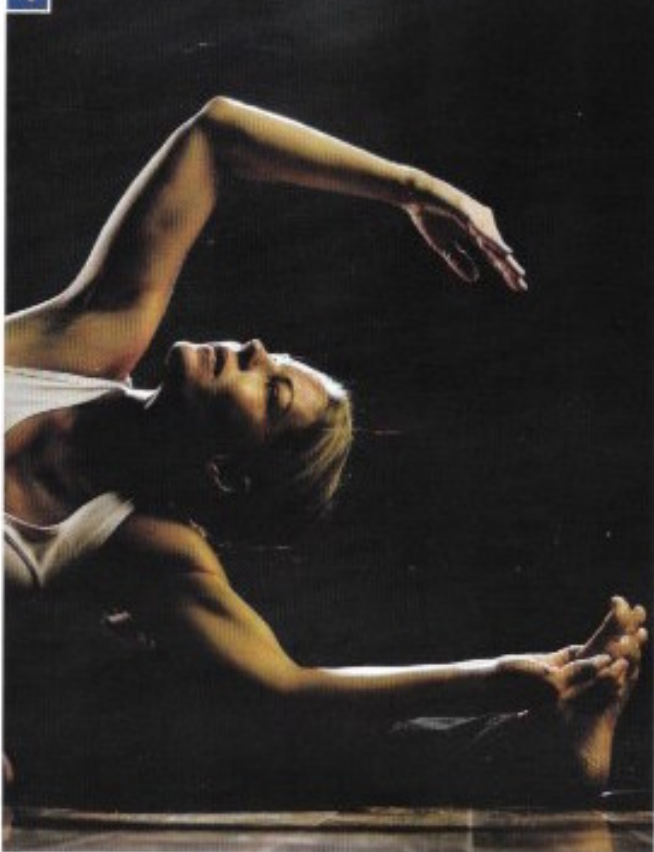

August 2007: Robert McCall painted for 70 years, specializing in space travel images including man's first walk on the moon and NASA shuttle flights. He passed away in February 2010.

8

March 2010: Beau MacMillan, executive chef at Sanctuary Camelback Mountain Resort & Spa's signature restaurant, elements, sautes mushrooms.

9

April 2011: Twin sisters Coco, right, and Kelly Miller had recently opened Kelly and Coco's Sports Performance Training in Paradise Valley. At the time, both played for the WNBA's Atlanta Dream.

4*5